Robin Bullock

Ranked among the "100 Greatest Acoustic Guitarists" by DigitalDreamDoor.com, Robin Bullock has been hailed as "one of the best folk instrumentalists in the business" by Sing Out! Magazine, "breathtaking" by Guitar Player Magazine and a "Celtic guitar god" by Baltimore City Paper.

Robin is a winner of Editor's Pick and Player's Choice Awards from Acoustic Guitar Magazine, multiple Washington Area Music Association WAMMIE Awards, a Governor's Award from the Maryland State Arts Council, a bronze medal at the National Mandolin Championships in Winfield, Kansas, and the Swannanoa Gathering's Master Music Maker Award for lifetime achievement in musicianship and teaching. Robin maintains a busy international touring schedule, performing solo and in Celtic duos with guitarist Steve Baughman and four-time National Scottish Harp Champion Sue Richards; he's also played several hundred concerts as sideman with Grammy Award-winning folk legend Tom Paxton, including four "Together at Last" tours with Tom's fellow Grammy winner Janis Ian.

Robin's discography of nearly two dozen solo, collaborative and group CDs includes volume one of the Bach Cello Suites on solo mandolin; The Carolan Collection, a compilation of the legendary Irish bard's compositions, sales of which benefit North Carolina animal rescue organizations; and most recently, the straightforwardly-titled An American Guitar Album. Robin co-hosts the monthly Carolina Celtic concert series in Black Mountain, NC, leads the annual Robinwood Guitar Retreat in Sharpsburg, MD, and teaches guitar and mandolin anywhere in the world via Skype and Zoom.
